

Level 3 Award in Aspects of Enterprise (2012)

The Level 3 Award in Aspects of Enterprise (QCF) is aimed at individuals who have an interest in developing a practical understanding of enterprise. As a Level 3 qualification, the learning is targeted at those wishing to develop an understanding of some of the aspects of setting up a more 'complex' business.

Qualification Overview

Level 3 Award in Aspects of Enterprise (QCF)
QCF Reference Number	600/5776/2
Credit Value*	3 credits
Guided Learning Hours	26 hours
Duration	Completion within two years
Structure	2 mandatory units
Age Groups	16-18, 19+
First Date for Registrations	1st July 2012
Last Date for Registrations	31st December 2014
Entry Requirements	There are no formal entry requirements for these qualifications. However, in order to benefit from undertaking them, candidates should possess communication skills sufficient to allow them to perform as enterprise mentors and to address the assessment requirements of the qualifications.

*Please note: these SFEDI Awards Qualifications are part of the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF), applicable in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, providing successful candidates with transferable qualification credits.

Who May Be Interested In This Qualification

- Those with a general interest in establishing a business
- Those who have an interest in specific aspects of setting up and running a business
- Those in employment who have an interest in enterprise and enterprising approaches to business
- Self employed individuals who have a specific interest in key aspects of running their business