

Level 1 Award in Understanding Enterprise and Enterprising Skills

The Level 1 Award in Understanding Enterprise and Enterprising Skills (QCF) is designed to give learners knowledge in what enterprise means to them. The qualification looks at what enterprise is and what skills and behaviours are involved in being enterprising.

Qualification Overview

Level 1 Award in Understanding Enterprise and Enterprising Skills (QCF)
QCF Reference Number	600/5466/9
Credit Value*	1 credit
Guided Learning Hours	8 hours
Duration	Completion within two years
Structure	1 mandatory unit
Age Groups	14-16, 16-18, 19+
First Date for Registrations	1st May 2012
Last Date for Registrations	31st December 2014
Entry Requirements	There are no formal entry requirements for these qualifications. However, in order to benefit from undertaking them, candidates should possess communication skills sufficient to allow them to perform as enterprise mentors and to address the assessment requirements of the qualifications.

*Please note: these SFEDI Awards Qualifications are part of the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF), applicable in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, providing successful candidates with transferable qualification credits.

Who May Be Interested In This Qualification

Those who may have a very limited or no understanding of what enterprise or self employment entails
Those who wish to become actively involved in practical enterprise learning

Progression Routes

Learners who have completed this qualification may also wish to consider working towards:

Level 1 Award In Understanding suite of qualifications

Level 2 Award In Aspects of Preparing to Set Up a Business

Level 2 Certificate In Preparing to Set Up a New Business

Level 3 Award In Aspects of Preparing to Set Up a Business

Level 3 Certificate In Preparing to Set Up a New Business